EVOKE PROJECTS PUBLISHED IN 21st CENTURY BARS

Evoke International Design is proud to announce the latest release by Images Publishing Group, of "21st Century Bars", featuring two Evoke designed Vancouver hot spots, The Cascade Room on Main Street and Gastown's The Irish Heather.

"21st Century Bars", is a 240 page hardcover book featuring the best designed bars from around the world, from London to New York, Berlin to Melbourne, and is currently available online at imagespublishinggroup.com

The Images Publishing Group is one of the best-known international publishers of architecture and interior design titles.

Evoke International Design was formed in 2001 by David Nicolay and Robert Edmonds. The company incorporates conceptual thinking, interior and graphic design to ensure consistent and coherent environments for its client. Evoke's list of projects and clients include residential, restaurant, hotel and retail spaces. Evoke has successfully branded and opened two of their own restaurants, Habit Lounge and the Cascade Room, in Vancouver. Additionally, they have launched a line of t-shirts (Evokativ: T-shirts for the Thinking Class) and continue to create concert posters for Live Nation, Canada and House of Blues, USA.
